Bogie the dog was so excited to be going on holiday to Greece! He had never been to Greece before, and he couldn't wait to explore the beautiful island of Kos.

On the first day of their holiday, Bogie and his family went to the beach. The water was crystal-clear and the sand was white and soft. Bogie loved swimming in the sea and playing in the sand.

The next day, Bogie and his family went to explore the ancient ruins of Kos. They saw the ruins of a temple, a theatre, and a market. Bogie was amazed by how old the ruins were and how well-preserved they were.

On the third day of their holiday, Bogie and his family went on a boat trip to the nearby island of Nisyros. They saw a volcano, a hot spring, and a monastery. Bogie loved seeing all the different sights and sounds of Nisyros.

Bogie had an amazing time on his holiday to Kos. He made new friends, saw new places, and had lots of fun. He can't wait to go back to Greece one day!
