In the small town of Willow Creek, secrets are buried deep and the past has a way of coming back to haunt the present.

When the body of local resident Sarah Jones is found in the woods, the Blackmore Sisters are called in to investigate. Detectives Maggie and Frankie Blackmore are known for their sharp minds and relentless pursuit of justice. But this case is different. Sarah Jones was a close friend of the Blackmores, and her death hits them hard.

As the sisters delve into the investigation, they uncover a web of lies, secrets, and betrayal. Sarah Jones was not who she seemed, and her past is full of dark secrets. The Blackmores soon realize that they are dealing with a killer who is more dangerous than they could have ever imagined.

As the body count rises, the Blackmores must race against time to find the killer before they strike again. But with each step closer to the truth, they uncover more secrets and put themselves in danger.

Dead Wrong is a gripping mystery novel that will keep you on the edge of your seat from start to finish. Maggie and Frankie Blackmore are complex and relatable characters, and their determination to find justice for Sarah Jones is inspiring.

If you are a fan of mystery novels, then you will love Dead Wrong. It is a well-written and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end.
