Here and Now Letters 2008-2024 is a deeply personal and moving memoir that explores the complexities of love, loss, and renewal. Through a series of letters written to her late husband, the author reflects on their life together, the challenges they faced, and the lessons she has learned along the way.

The book begins with the author's early memories of her husband, a brilliant and charismatic man who swept her off her feet. They fell in love quickly and deeply, and soon started a family. But their life together was not without its challenges. The author's husband struggled with addiction and mental illness, and their relationship was often strained.

Despite the challenges, the author and her husband loved each other deeply. They supported each other through thick and thin, and their love for each other only grew stronger over time. But in 2022, the author's husband died suddenly and unexpectedly. The author was devastated by her loss, but she found solace in writing letters to him.

The letters in Here and Now Letters 2008-2024 are a powerful and moving testament to the power of love. They are a reminder that love is not always easy, but it is always worth fighting for. The book is a must-read for anyone who has ever loved and lost, and for anyone who is looking for hope and inspiration in the face of adversity.
