Love is a many-splendored thing, or so they say. But what happens when love is mixed with a hefty dose of stupidity?

Stuck On Stupid: Is Love Enough? is a thought-provoking and emotionally charged novel that explores the intricacies of love, loss, and redemption. The story follows the journey of Anya, a young woman who falls head over heels for a man named Jake, despite his obvious flaws.

Jake is kind-hearted and funny, but he also has a habit of saying the wrong thing at the worst possible moment. He's also prone to making impulsive decisions that often land him in hot water.

Anya knows that Jake is not perfect, but she loves him anyway. She believes that love can conquer all, even stupidity. But as their relationship progresses, Anya begins to question her belief.

Can love really survive when one person is constantly putting the other in harm's way? Or is there a point when love becomes too painful to bear?

Stuck On Stupid: Is Love Enough? is a brutally honest and unflinching look at the complexities of love. It is a story that will resonate with anyone who has ever loved someone who was less than perfect. It is a story about the power of love, the pain of loss, and the possibility of redemption.
