

The Illegal War On Libya: An Insider's Account of How the West Destroyed a Nation

In 2011, the West launched a military intervention in Libya that resulted in the overthrow and death of Muammar Gaddafi. The intervention was justified on the grounds of protecting civilians from Gaddafi's forces, but it quickly became clear that the West had other motives. In The Illegal War On Libya, former British ambassador to Libya Oliver Miles provides an insider's account of how the West destroyed a nation.
