Historical Roots: From Enlightenment to Conspiracy

The Illuminati emerged in the turbulent era of the 18th century Enlightenment. Founded in Bavaria by Adam Weishaupt, the Free Masons sought to promote rationalism, humanism, and the overthrow of superstitious beliefs.

However, their progressive ideals quickly drew the ire of the Bavarian government, which branded them as a threat to the established order. In 1785, the Illuminati was officially disbanded, casting them into the realm of myth and speculation.

Secret Rituals and Occult Beliefs

Despite their forced dissolution, the Illuminati's legend has endured, fueled by rumors of secret rituals and occult beliefs. Alleged accounts of clandestine meetings, Masonic symbolism, and even human sacrifice have woven themselves into the enigmatic tapestry of the organization.
