

Unlock the Power of Literacy in Secondary Grades: Essential Guide to Literacy Coaching

Literacy is the cornerstone of student success in all academic disciplines and beyond. Yet, many secondary students struggle with reading, writing, and critical thinking skills, hindering their ability to reach their full potential. Literacy Coaching in the Secondary Grades provides a comprehensive roadmap for educators to transform their literacy instruction and empower struggling students.

What is Literacy Coaching?

Literacy coaching is a collaborative partnership between a trained coach and a classroom teacher that focuses on improving literacy instruction and student outcomes. The coach supports the teacher in developing and implementing effective strategies, enhancing their teaching skills, and fostering a positive and supportive classroom environment.
