

Wrote This For You Just The Words

Dedication

Thank you.

Thank you for finding me.

Thank you for being here.

I've waited for you longer than the stars

have waited for the night.

Since time started ticking.

Without you reading them, these words mean nothing.

Thank you for giving them meaning.

There are many different ways to read this book.

You can read it from start to finish.

You can skip to a part of it that resonates with where you are right now.

You can leave it next to your bed or in the bottom of a backpack and every now and again, pull it out and randomly pick a page.

More often than not, I have found that the universe will help you pick the right page.

You can circle something and hand it to someone else. This can be quite powerful, but in the end, remember: This is your book.

Read it how you want to.

I wrote this for you.

Thank you for reading it.
